¶2. (SBU) According to university contacts and local press, Hamas Executive Force gunmen forcibly entered and occupied buildings at al-Azhar University in Gaza City early on March 31 before departing by the afternoon of the same day. (Note: While al-Azhar has student groups from all factions, the university and its administration have historically been informally associated with Fatah. End note). University officials had attempted to prevent a large rally to commemorate the death of Hamas spiritual leader Ahmad Yasin, as part of a general ban on political demonstrations on campus. Pro-Hamas students called on Hamas security men to forcibly allow the rally, and there are press reports that several students, professors and staff were beaten by the gunmen as the Executive Force occupied the campus.

¶3. (U) Al-Azhar Vice President for Administration Jabr al-Da'ur told local press that Hamas gunmen and students hung Hamas flags and posters of Ahmad Yasin and other Hamas leaders all over the campus. Hamas security officials claimed to local press that the Executive Force had acted properly and needed to enter the university to restore order amidst fighting between students.
